INTRODUCTION

Sinplcity is excited about the flavors and colors and excitement of the season. We're especially looking forward to helping you celebrate being together with your team members again during the holidays. It's been a while since most of us have had a hectic entertaining season. We can't wait to help you get the party started.

It's understood that many offices are still taking a cautious approach to how they entertain. For that reason, we're once again offering our Holiday Reception Boxes along with all of our regularly-wonderful individual meal and snack boxes. Visit our website for more details.

So once again, whether it's a drop-off party for 20 or a full-service gala for 500, we're here to make your event an experience that you won't forget. We can arrange everything from staffing, linens, china and unique menus to please the most finicky crowds.

The holiday season is busy for all of us, so we encourage you to book your party early. Please feel free to call our office for guidance on menu selections and order placement. Sinplcity catering looks forward to making this a memorable holiday season!

Please contact us at 703.892.1400 or info@sinplcitycatering.com to place your order or book your future event. An experienced account executive will be delighted to help meet all your catering needs.
